Ba Gua Staff

[[First, purchase the instructional DVD featuring the instruction by Shifu Jiang Jian-ye. You must have this good instructional DVD, and the guidance of Shifu Jiang Jian-ye therein, to learn this Ba Gua Staff Form. I have based my descriptions of this solo Ba Gua staff form on the performance and instructions by Shifu Jiang Jian-ye in his instructional DVD “Traditional Ba Gua Staff with Applications,” and my personal practice of this challenging form.]

Ba Gua Staff with Applications
Ba Gua Staff

West Dillenbeck Drive, Albany, NY 12203. "It combines elements that characterize Baguazhang with movements that are specific to staff techniques. It develops flexibility throughout the body, and increases joint mobility."

Website: Jiang's Tai Chi Videos. Vendor: WLE. This form is taught in 19 lessons and each lesson has from 2 to 5 movement sequences. In each lesson, Shifu Jiang carefully explains the movement sequence in a voiceover narrative as he slowly and precisely demonstrates each aspect of each movement sequence. He repeats the movement very slowly two or three times from a front view and he explains exactly what is to be done. Then the lesson is slowly repeated 3 times from a side view. Finally a demonstration from a rear view of the movement sequence is repeated 3 or more times at a moderate speed.
